GARTIN'S OLD STAND
LOUISA, KY. KENTUCKY

CONGRESSMAN W. J. FIELDS

Democrats who approve of the honest, sober, efficient service rendered by their servant in Congress, Hon. W. J. Fields, should show their approval by going to the polls on Saturday of next week and voting for him. His name comes first on the ballot.

Recently Mr. Champ Clark paid Mr. Fields the high compliment of pronouncing his speech the best that was made on one of the important subjects before Congress a few weeks ago. Mr. Clark went further than that—he sent out under his own frank a large number of copies of this speech.

When you hear some fellow opposing Mr. Fields in this district, go and search out his real object, or his sore spot, or find who is having it done. Nobody can name a good reason why Congressman Fields should not be sent back to again represent this district. Nobody with more ability has offered for this important place. We could truthfully state the proposition stronger, but for the sake of courtesy shall not. Mr. Fields' experience is worth more than is generally appreciated. His long service has given him important committee assignments, where he is able to accomplish real work. No more faithful representative is found in Congress. Men of experience, integrity, sobriety and conscience are needed in Congress worse than ever before. There is nothing of the demagogue in the make-up of Congressman Fields. He is a man of the people, rising from the trenches by his own efforts. This is the only kind of a man who feels and knows the needs of the masses.

Go to the polls on August 5th and register your approval of this man's service.

POINTS THE WAY.

THE STATEMENT OF THIS FORT GAY RESIDENT WILL INTEREST OUR READERS.

Our neighbors know Fort Gay points the way to the wards of one of its most respected residents.

R. Frasher, M. D., Fort Gay, W. Va., says: "The residents of this vicinity suffer considerably from kidney and bladder complaint, due to the poor quality of drinking water. I have known many kidney pills to be the one medicine that can be depended upon for relief. It has been my experience that all ailments caused by weak kidneys, such as irregular passages of the kidney secretions, gravel, dropsical swellings, lumbago, pains in the back and hips, etc., can be removed by Doan's Kidney Pills. A few doses of this medicine taken immediately when the trouble is first noticed, will save much misery."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Frasher had. Foster-McIlburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.
